Sick and Tired: Health and Safety Inequalities

Sick and Tired (Fernwood Publishing, 2018) brings together a multidisciplinary group of experts from the fields of labour studies, public health, ergonomics, epidemiology, sociology and law. The book examines the inequalities in workplace health and safety. Join the book's editor Stephanie Premji, and many of the authors in a curated discussion of the issues covered in this important new volume.

Presenters Include:

Stephanie Premji (McMaster) - Causes and Expressions of Inequalities

Wayne Lewchuk (McMaster) - The Millennial Labour Market

Harry S. Shannon (McMaster) - The Aging Population: Implications For Health & Safety

Eduardo Huesca (OHCOW) - Occupational Health of Temporary Foreign Workers

Dan Zuberi (U of T) - Health & Safety In Hotel and Hospital Cleaning with additional presentations from injured workers and advocates, as well as Q&A.
